

Downtown Social Story

Today is Wednesday and I am going to church. Church is where I give thanks to God and remember that God loves me.

You will go into the Children's Assembly Room for Downtown.

You will sit on colored squares with your friends.

You will sing songs and dance to worship God with the worship team.

You will listen to a Bible story from Mrs. Angie and Mrs. Suzanne.

You will have fun learning about God with your church family!
